fps 1280x720 3.99MB i586 ive watched it doesn't solve my problem any ideas? how can I stop 12.04 from automatically installing old kernels? douglas-, in terminal: sudo update-grub douglas-: i do that,too ive even disable them from list but still can be started by other os i don't want it wzssyqa, OerHeks thanks. douglas-: just so you know, we advise against disabling kernels in ubuntu ubuntu does not prevent kernel update, if you know what you are doing i know ,but it doesn't solve my problem hi any idea? I keep my important data backed up to a network share on windows. I use "remote" as my share name. I have a few ubuntu boxes, but I have no Windows box to create it on I have an idea can u help me Guest28719 what do you need help with? You can my drive is not mounting ? Guest28719 what's the error? but i can open the files and folders in the drives but the partition on it is not mounting That is an information issue. You have to provide more details my win7 is not mounting and i can't mount the partition What is the error? i cant mount the partition that is located on the hd
